

The Past Simple of verb "To Be"

Read the following passages:

1. My name is Mario. I was at "Junín" High School. It was a nice school. There, we were very happy. Everybody was always on time. Now, I am always on time.
2. Their parents were not in the city, and Lucy was not usually ready for parties. She was with her aunt and their cousins. Sometimes, she was sleepy in the class.
3. I wasn't at home, and my father was angry. I was tired after the soccer game. I was at my school hungry and sad.
4. Students from the city were ready for the Plurinational Games! Marios's school wasn't ready for it. They were surprised because the information about the games was not good. The dates weren't correct!